

Hello APSA members! Here is the APSA Semesterly report for Fall 2021.

Summer

- Attended APSA Summer Retreat
- Collaborated with GSK to work towards Lunch and Learns and future planning
- Met with RxA representative Ali for future planning
- Collaborated with Dr. Ravina Sanghera for student services and feedback for the school year
- Advocated for the early initiation for student committees
- Creation of the SAF-Pharm project book for the leading year

September

- Recruitment of SAF-Pharm committee members
- Presented two Lunch and Learns with GSK: "GSK Pain week"
- Led monthly meetings for the SAF-Pharm committee
- Attended bi-weekly APSA meetings
- Got in touch with the food bank for volunteer setup and organization
- Sent out a food bank survey to assess interest

October

- Continual attendance of monthly meetings for the SAF-Pharm committee and biweekly APSA meetings
- Initiation of the SAF-Pharm Trade Show revamp to be more EDI forward
- Invited RxA's representative Ali Damani to have a leadership talk
- Collaborated with VP fundraising to seek funding with external companies
- Contact with the EDI committee about the new revamped trade show to have faculty input and support
- Presentation to general council of the trade show revamp

November

- Continual attendance of monthly meetings for the SAF-Pharm committee and biweekly APSA meetings
- Instagram challenge - collaboration with VP finance for funding

- APSA Heritage week draw
- Collaborated with the PAM-committee for the new SAF-Pharm Trade show
- Collaboration and meeting with CAPSI national for January events

December

- Continued planning for the SAF-Pharm trade show revamp
- End of semester wrap-up

Future

Depending on the status of the pandemic, further advocacy work with food bank volunteering and a revamped trade show that targets equity, diversity, and inclusion (EDI) is projected.

Looking forward to further advocacy work with the student committees. Feel free to reach out to me via email pham1@ualberta.ca.

Take care, happy holidays!

Respectfully submitted,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Diane Pham', with a long horizontal line extending to the right.

Diane Pham, SAF-Pharm Director
Alberta Pharmacy Students' Association
Pham1@ualberta.ca